

Want to Get “Up Close” to The Best Women Golfers in the World?

Volunteer at The CME Group Tour Championship, the Year End Championship of the LPGA

Stonebridge provides the Marshals for the 12th hole at The CME Championship, played at Tiburon Golf Club, November 13 – 18, 2018. Our Marshals will be posted at both the tee and the green, to ensure uninterrupted play for the professionals. It also provides up with the ability to watch the best women golfers in the world up close!

As a Marshal, you get the following:

- An ID that provides parking and free entrance for you every day of the tournament
- Four (4) daily passes
- A tournament shirt, hat and bag
- Lunch on the days you work
- A pass for golf at Tiburon for a cart fee in the 2019 reciprocal season (must work three days to qualify)

All this for a $55 fee, payable when you register.

If you are at all interested, feel free to go to the CME Volunteer web site:

<https://2018cmevol.my-trs.com>

where there is additional information and where you can register. When you do register, sign up as a Marshal for Hole #12, Stonebridge. Please notify Sandy Katz and Hal Hills after you register.

If you have any questions, please contact Sandy Katz (sfkgolf@aol.com) or Hal Hills (hhills973@yahoo.com).

We always have a great time and a wonderful experience. Please join us!
